About The Session:

Higher Education Institutions can form intentional and productive partnerships with K12 schools, encouraging college and career success before students set foot on a college campus. Participants will be provided and overview of successful partnerships and learn how to establish K12 and higher education partnerships in their communities and with their organizations.

Key Takeaways:

- Why K-12 Higher Education partnerships matter
- Examples of some best practice partnerships
- Recommendations to leverage and/or enhance the partnership

Resources:

- The Education Trust, Publications
- Knoxnews.com article
- TRIO Footprint
- National Association for College Admissions Counseling (NACAC) Directory of College Access & Success Programs
- College Advising Corps
- Advise TN
- GEAR UP Tennessee
- PEER Power – The University of Memphis
- Public Education Foundation of Chattanooga
- Camp College
- University of Tennessee Flagship Scholarship
- UT LEAD Summer Institute