Weekly Legislative Update

The Tennessee Legislature is in Student Achievement (1087), an Adminstration/Intervention/ Education legislation proposed to assist in school reform, is being sponsored by Speaker Beth Harwell and House Majority Leader Jeremy Faison. The bill would mandate a study to evaluate the impact of charter schools on student achievement.

The Tennessee Senate is in Education Reform (1125), which would create a new state agency to oversee education policy. The bill is sponsored by Senate Majority Leader Jack Johnson and is moving quickly through the committee process.

On Our Radar

What's Happening

Sevier County School Board member leasing out for the Winter Session

Noteworthy

The Tennessee Board of Education is considering revising its Reorganization Plan, which would affect the state's educational system. The plan includes changes to the state's curriculum and assessment programs.

Learn More

TSEA Evaluation Tool & FAQ

EVENT: "Improving Education Finance for Oklahoma’s Learners" in Oklahoma City, OK. The event focuses on equity and access in Oklahoma's education system. Attendees will discuss strategies for improving education finance for all learners.

Road Trip

Opening Remarks

Chairman of the Senate Education Committee introduces the speaker.

Speaker's Remarks

The speaker discusses their perspective on the importance of education and the need for reform.

Q&A Session

Audience members ask questions and engage in a discussion with the speaker.

Closing Remarks

The chairman of the Senate Education Committee wraps up the event.